vs.

No. 4:20-cv- 731-LPR

This case assigned to District Judge

and to Magistrate Judge

CARE IV, INC., and RALPH J. FRIEDMANN III

DEFENDANTS

ORIGINAL COMPLAINT—COLLECTIVE ACTION

COMES NOW Plaintiff Amber Moser ("Plaintiff"), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, by and through her attorneys April Rhéaume and Josh Sanford of Sanford Law Firm, PLLC, and for her Original Complaint—Collective Action ("Complaint") against Defendants Care IV, Inc., and Ralph J. Friedmann III (collectively "Defendant" or "Defendants"), she states and alleges as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENTS

1. This is a collective action brought by Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against Defendants for violations of the overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. (the "FLSA"), and the overtime provisions of the Arkansas Minimum Wage Act, Ark. Code Ann. § 11-4-201, et seq. (the "AMWA").

2. Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment, monetary damages, liquidated damages, prejudgment interest, and a reasonable attorney's fee and costs as a result of Defendants' failure to pay proper overtime compensation under the FLSA and the AMWA.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas has subject matter jurisdiction over this suit under the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this suit raises federal questions under the FLSA.

4. This Complaint also alleges AMWA violations, which arise out of the same set of operative facts as the federal cause of action; accordingly, this Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's AMWA claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

5. Defendant has facilities located throughout Arkansas, including within the Central Division of the Eastern District of Arkansas; therefore, venue is proper within this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

III. THE PARTIES

6. Plaintiff is an individual and resident of Washington County.

7. Separate Defendant Care IV, Inc. ("Care IV"), is a foreign, for-profit corporation.

8. Care IV also does business as Care IV Home Health.

9. Care IV's registered agent for service is CT Corporation System at 124 West Capitol Avenue, Suite 1900, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201.

10. Separate Defendant Ralph J. Friedmann III ("Friedmann") is an individual.

11. Defendants maintain a website at <http://care4.com/>.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges all the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth in this section.

13. Friedman is the owner, principal, officer and/or director of Care IV.

14. Friedman manages and controls the day-to-day operations of Care IV, including but not limited to the decision to not pay Plaintiff a sufficient premium for hours worked in excess of forty (40) per week

15. Within the three years preceding the filing of this Complaint, Defendant has continuously employed at least four employees.

16. Defendant employs two or more individuals who engage in interstate commerce or business transactions, or who produce goods to be transported or sold in interstate commerce, or who handle, sell, or otherwise work with goods or materials that have been moved in or produced for interstate commerce.

17. Defendant's annual gross volume of sales made or business done is not less than $500,000.00 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated) in each of the three years preceding the filing of the Original Complaint.

18. Defendant is a home healthcare company.

19. At all times material herein, Plaintiff has been entitled to the rights, protections, and benefits provided under the FLSA.

20. At all times material herein, Plaintiff has been classified by Defendant as non-exempt from the overtime requirements of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207, and the AMWA, A.C.A. § 11-4-211.

21. Defendant employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid home healthcare worker from June of 2019 to January of 2020.

22. Specifically, Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a physical therapy assistant, and her duties included directing patients in their physical therapy care.

23. Defendant hired other individuals to work as home healthcare workers as well.

24. Defendant hired home healthcare workers to work as physical therapists, occupational therapists, speech therapists, assistant therapists, RNs, LPNs, and PRNs.

25. Other home healthcare workers were classified as non-exempt from the overtime requirements of the FLSA and were paid an hourly wage.

26. At all relevant times herein, Defendant directly hired home healthcare workers to work on its behalf, paid them wages and benefits, controlled their work schedules, duties, protocols, applications, assignments and employment conditions, and kept at least some records regarding their employment.

27. Plaintiff and other home healthcare workers regularly worked hours for which they were not paid. Specifically, during certain busy months Plaintiff and other home healthcare workers were directed by Defendant to work over forty (40) hours per week but not to record any hours worked over forty (40) in a week.

28. Plaintiff and other home healthcare workers were required to visit Defendant's clients in the clients' homes.

29. Defendant did not pay Plaintiff and other home healthcare workers for the time it took to drive between Defendant's clients' homes.

30. Plaintiff estimates that during some months she worked five to seven hours per week which were not recorded or compensated.

31. Because Plaintiff and other home healthcare workers worked hours which went uncompensated, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other home healthcare workers a lawful overtime premium for all hours worked over forty each week.

32. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other home healthcare workers were working additional hours off-the-clock for which they were not compensated.

33. At all relevant times herein, Defendant has deprived Plaintiff and other home healthcare workers of regular wages and overtime compensation for all of the hours worked over forty (40) per week.

34. Defendant knew or showed reckless disregard for whether its actions violated the FLSA.

V. REPRESENTATIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

35. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully incorporated in this section.

36. Plaintiff brings this claim for relief for violation of the FLSA as a collective action pursuant to Section 16(b) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all persons similarly situated as hourly employees who were, are, or will be employed by Defendants within the applicable statute of limitations period, who are entitled to payment of the following types of damages:

- A. Regular wages and overtime premiums for all hours worked over forty (40) hours in any week;
- B. Liquidated damages; and
- C. Attorney's fees and costs.

37. Plaintiff proposes the following class under the FLSA:

All hourly home healthcare workers in the past three years.

38. In conformity with the requirements of FLSA Section 16(b), Plaintiff has filed or will soon file a written Consent to Join this lawsuit.

39. The relevant time period dates back three years from the date on which Plaintiff's Original Complaint—Collective Action was filed herein and continues forward through the date of judgment pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 255(a), except as set forth herein below.

40. The members of the proposed FLSA class are similarly situated in that they share these traits:

A. They were paid hourly;

B. They were subject to Defendant's common policy of failing to pay for time spent driving between locations;

C. They were subject to Defendant's common policy of requiring hourly employees to work overtime off the clock; and

D. They were subject to Defendant's common policy of failing to pay hourly employees for all hours worked.

41. Plaintiff is unable to state the exact number of the class but believes that the class exceeds fifty (50) persons.

42. Defendant can readily identify the members of the class, who are a certain portion of the current and former employees of Defendant.

43. The names and physical and mailing addresses of the probable FLSA collective action plaintiffs are available from Defendant.

44. The email addresses of many of the probable FLSA collective action plaintiffs are available from Defendant.

VI. FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Individual Claim for FLSA Violations)

45. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

46. Plaintiff asserts this claim for damages and declaratory relief pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.

47. At all relevant times, Defendant has been, and continues to be, an enterprise engaged in commerce within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203.

48. 29 U.S.C. §§ 206 and 207 require any enterprise engaged in commerce to pay a minimum wage for all hours worked up to 40 in one week and to pay 1.5x their regular wages for all hours worked over 40, unless an employee meets certain exemption requirements of 29 U.S.C. § 213 and all accompanying DOL regulations.

49. Defendant classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from the requirements of the FLSA.

50. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours worked, including one and one-half times her regular rate for all hours worked in excess of forty hours per week.

51. Defendant knew or should have known that its actions violated the FLSA.

52. Defendant's conduct and practices, as described above, were willful.

53. By reason of the unlawful acts alleged herein, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for monetary damages, liquidated damages and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees provided by the FLSA for all violations which occurred beginning at least three (3) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's initial complaint, plus periods of equitable tolling.

54. Defendants have not acted in good faith nor with reasonable grounds to believe their actions and omissions were not a violation of the FLSA, and, as a result thereof, Plaintiff is entitled to recover an award of liquidated damages in an amount equal to the amount of unpaid minimum wage and unpaid overtime premium pay described above pursuant to Section 16(b) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

55. Alternatively, should the Court find that Defendants acted in good faith in failing to pay Plaintiff as provided by the FLSA, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of prejudgment interest at the applicable legal rate.

VII. SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Collective Action Claim for FLSA Violations)

56. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

57. Plaintiff asserts this claim for damages and declaratory relief on behalf of all similarly situated employees pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.

58. At all relevant times, Defendant has been, and continues to be, an enterprise engaged in commerce within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203.

59. 29 U.S.C. §§ 206 and 207 require any enterprise engaged in commerce to pay all employees a minimum wage for all hours worked up to 40 in one week and to pay 1.5x their regular wages for all hours worked over forty (40) in a week, unless an employee meets certain exemption requirements of 29 U.S.C. § 213 and all accompanying Department of Labor regulations.

60. Defendant classified Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees as non-exempt from the overtime provisions of the FLSA.

61. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and similarly situated employees for all hours worked, including one and one-half times their regular rate for all hours worked in excess of forty hours per week.

62. Defendant deprived Plaintiff and similarly situated employees of compensation for all of the hours worked over forty (40) per week, in violation of the FLSA.

63. Defendant knew or should have known that its actions violated the FLSA.

64. Defendant's conduct and practices, as described above, were willful.

65. By reason of the unlawful acts alleged herein, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees for monetary damages, liquidated damages and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees provided by the FLSA for all violations which occurred beginning at least three (3) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's initial complaint, plus periods of equitable tolling.

66. Defendants have not acted in good faith nor with reasonable grounds to believe their actions and omissions were not a violation of the FLSA, and, as a result thereof, Plaintiff and similarly situated employees are entitled to recover an award of liquidated damages in an amount equal to the amount of unpaid overtime premium pay described above pursuant to Section 16(b) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

67. Alternatively, should the Court find that Defendant acted in good faith in failing to pay Plaintiff and the collective members as provided by the FLSA, they are entitled to an award of prejudgment interest at the applicable legal rate.

VIII. THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Individual Claim for AMWA Violations)

68. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

69. Plaintiff asserts this claim for damages and declaratory relief pursuant to the AMWA, Ark. Code Ann. §§ 11-4-201, et seq.

70. At all relevant times, Defendant was Plaintiff's "employer" within the meaning of the AMWA, Ark. Code Ann. § 11-4-203(4).

71. Sections 210 and 211 of the AMWA require employers to pay all employees a minimum wage for all hours worked, and to pay one and one-half times regular wages for all hours worked over forty hours in a week, unless an employee meets the exemption requirements of 29 U.S.C. § 213 and accompanying Department of Labor regulations.

72. Defendant classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from the requirements of AMWA.

73. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours worked, including overtime wages as required under the AMWA for all hours that Plaintiff worked in excess of forty (40) per week.

74. Defendant knew or should have known that its practices violated the AMWA.

75. Defendant's conduct and practices, as described above, were willful, intentional, unreasonable, arbitrary, and in bad faith.

76. By reason of the unlawful acts alleged herein, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for, and Plaintiff seeks, monetary damages, liquidated damages, prejudgment interest, and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees as provided by the AMWA.

IX. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

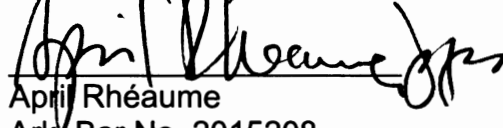

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Plaintiff Amber Moser, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, respectfully prays that each Defendant be summoned to appear and to answer this Complaint and for declaratory relief and damages as follows:

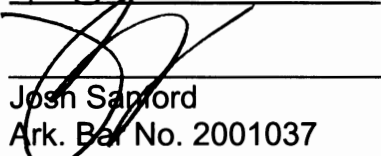

- A. Declaratory judgment that Defendant's practices alleged in this Complaint violate the FLSA, the AMWA, and their related regulations;
- B. Certification of a collective under Section 216 of the FLSA of all individuals similarly situated, as further defined in any motion for the same;
- C. Judgment for damages suffered by Plaintiff and others similarly situated for all unpaid overtime wages under the FLSA, the AMWA and their related regulations;
- D. Judgment for liquidated damages owed to Plaintiff and all others similarly situated pursuant to the FLSA, the AMWA, and their related regulations;
- E. An order directing Defendant to pay Plaintiff and all others similarly situated interest, a reasonable attorney's fee and all costs connected with this action; and
- F. Such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
